

Inevitable Change » Limitless Opportunity

FutureProofAdvisors.com

| What                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Why                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | How                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Future»Proof Point                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The Progress Sheet is designedto help you track progressduring team meetings or advisorysessions. It provides a frameworkfor capturing discussion points,recommendations, and nextsteps in a clear and organizedmanner. | Using the Progress Sheet isessential for effectivecommunication andaccountability within your team ororganization. It ensures that allrelevant topics are addressed,decisions are documented, andaction items are assigned,fostering productivity andalignment towards commongoals. | <ul> <li>Progress &amp; Wins:Capture any notable progress orachievements since the lastsession to track advancement andcelebrate successes.</li> <li>Discussion Points:Before the session, list key topicsto cover. This provides context forrecommendations and next steps.</li> <li>Recommendations:Capture specific insights andrecommendations. Be concise andnote associated action items.</li> <li>What's Next:Outline actionable steps ormilestones resulting from thediscussion.</li> </ul> | Start with Celebrating Progress and Wins!         Begin your session by highlighting the progress and wins achieved.         This sets a positive tone, inspiring both yourself and your team.         Fostering a culture of gratitude and positivity enhances productivity and sets the stage for success! |

Session Date: 00/00/00

| Session Title: XYZ                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
| Discussion Points                                                                                     | Recommendations                                                                                                                                                                                                | What's Next                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |
| What key areas will you discussin your session? Focus on thepriorities that align with goals. | Capture any recommendations or insights that arise during the session.                                                                                                                                  | Identify next steps &amp; actionitems needed to execute therecommendations.                                                                                                                                          |  |  |
| 1. XYZ                                                                                                | 1. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 1. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| 2. XYZ                                                                                                | 2. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 2. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| 3. XYZ                                                                                                | 3. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 3. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| 4. XYZ                                                                                                | 4. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 4. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| 5. XYZ                                                                                                | 5. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 5. XYZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
|                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |  |
|                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Next Session Date: 00/00/00                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |
|                                                                                                       | <ul> <li>Discussion Points</li> <li>What key areas will you discuss in your session? Focus on the priorities that align with goals.</li> <li>1. XYZ</li> <li>2. XYZ</li> <li>3. XYZ</li> <li>4. XYZ</li> </ul> | Discussion PointsRecommendationsWhat key areas will you discussin your session? Focus on thepriorities that align with goals.Capture any recommendationsor insights that arise during thesession.1.XYZ2.XYZ3.XYZ4.XYZ |  |  |

Session Date:

| Session Title: |                   |                 |                    |  |
|----------------|-------------------|-----------------|--------------------|--|
| Progress Made  | Discussion Points | Recommendations | What's Next        |  |
| 1.             | 1.                | 1.              | 1.                 |  |
| 2.             | 2.                | 2.              | 2.                 |  |
| 3.             | 3.                | 3.              | 3.                 |  |
| 4.             | 4.                | 4.              | 4.                 |  |
| 5.             | 5.                | 5.              | 5.                 |  |
|                |                   |                 | Next Session Date: |  |

About Us

Future Proof Advisors is a leading mid-market and emerging company advisory firm founded by two pragmatic visionaries who have successfully grown and scaled businesses from $4M to $200M+. With a track record of transforming Inc. 500, private equity-backed, and publicly traded companies into award-winning, highly profitable industry leaders that realized multi-million dollar exits, we specialize in getting businesses "unstuck" and on the path to rapid transformation.

Our network of passionate C-level Strategic Advisors functions as a custom outsourced board, focused on unlocking hidden value and accelerating growth. We work alongside handpicked members to develop and execute business-changing strategies that enhance operational efficiency, generate increased profitability, and drive better future-proof outcomes.

For more information, visit www.FutureProofAdvisors.com or contact us at info@futureproofgrp.com.

Inevitable Change »Limitless Opportunity